The current annual subscription, payable on election, is £95 for Associate Members and £115 for full Members.

Established in 1919, The Society of Graphic Fine Art [ The Drawing Society ], exists to promote and exhibit works of high quality in colour or black and white with the emphasis on good drawing and draughtsmanship, in pencil, pen, brush, charcoal, conte or any of the forms of original printmaking. To keep the Society's exhibitions distinctive – oil paintings, "pure" watercolours with no additional drawing, reproductions, laser copies and computer generated images are not admissible. The Society generally holds two exhibitions each year, an 'Open' exhibition for Members and Non Members who submit work for selection, and a 'Members Only' exhibition with no selection.

Any Artist may be considered for Associate Membership and no nominations are required.

Artists are elected on the strength of work they submit to the selectors on the day.
