Established in 1919, the Society of Graphic Fine Art exists to promote and exhibit works of high quality in colour or black and white with the emphasis on good drawing and draughtsmanship, in pencil, pen, brush, charcoal, conté or any of the forms of original printmaking, as well as any original artwork including paintings, which demonstrate evidence of drawing by hand. Digital imagery generated by computer, giclee prints and all other reproductions and facsimiles are inadmissible in our exhibitions. The Society endeavours to hold two exhibitions each year, an 'Open' exhibition for members and non-members who submit work for selection, and a 'Members Only' exhibition with no selection.

Any artist may be considered for Associate Membership and no nominations are required.

Artists are elected on the strength of work they submit to the selectors on the day.
